Comments:

It is not very often you see someone go above and beyond their call of duty these days. I would like to let you know how impressed I am with Andy Merrick of the Nisku location. Andy had an older gentleman in there today that forgot his cell phone. Andy just dropped it off at his place of business. They could have called, or emailed the company, but rather he went out of his way to drop it off. Andy you are very rare these days, we appreciate what you did, more than words can describe.

THANK YOU

Sharla & Hank
